Section II. Group Insurance Premium and/or HSA Contribution
Your Group Insurance plan premiums and/or Health Savings Account contributions are withheld pre-tax automatically. Your election to pay your Group Insurance premium and/or Health Savings Account contribution automatically continues each year unless revoked. You may revoke your premium election at the beginning of a plan year or during the year should you have a qualifying "life event" that permits a mid-year change.  Section III. HSA Contribution
Only employees covered by a High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) may contribute to a Health Savings Account (HSA).  Employees who are covered by "other first dollar coverage" may not contribute: a health plan that has first dollar copays, TRICARE, Medicare, general purpose FSA or HRA, or if the individual has received VA benefits or Indian Health Services in the last three months.  Effective January 1, 2016 employees receiving VA benefits may contribute to an HSA if their VA benefits are the result of a service connected disability.   Total Colondar Veet Maximum Contributions: Single $2,650. month of the year or (b) the full HSA contribution limit for the taxable year based on the type of HDHP coverage that he had on December 1 of that year.  13-month Testing Period  If the individual makes HSA contributions under the last-month rule, and the individual does not remain HSA-eligible (for reasons other than death or disability) during the 13-month "testing period" (beginning with the December of the year for which those contributions were made and ending on the last day of the 12 th month following that December), the amount which could not have been contributed except for this provision will be included in income and subject to a 10% additional tax. This 10% penalty cannot be avoided by withdrawing such amounts from the HSA, even if the withdrawal were made by April 15.  HSA-ineligible mid-calendar year  If an individual becomes covered by other first dollar coverage and/or terminates HSA-eligible coverage during a calendar year, the maximum contribution is prorated based on the number of full months they are eligible in that calendar year.
